Substance-use reflection

Collect information for a nonjudgmental conversation with your provider.

Name (optional): _____ Date: _____

What did I use, how much, and what time?

What was happening immediately beforehand?

How did I feel afterward?

How did I sleep and feel the next day?

What did I learn?

What would I like to discuss at my next visit?

Abruptly stopping some substances can cause dangerous withdrawal. Talk with a healthcare professional when physical dependence may be present.

Educational self-reflection only; not individualized treatment. For immediate danger, call 911. For crisis support in the U.S., call or text 988.
